"W" Club

Did you ever purchase a candy bar at a basketball game from a lad in a gold or blue letter sweater knowing that this money went to pay the costs of injured football players? This is the major activity of the "W" Club members. The club also sponsored a dance, the "Overall Ball." They helped advisor Willis Jones by selling programs at the West Relays. First semester officers were Ronald Beyler, president; Peter Ciulla, vice-president; and Jack Vincent, secretary. Results of the second semester elections were Art Schulz, president; Bob Curtin, vice-president; and George Steinmetz, secretary.

Hi-Y

At least Thursday night everybody knows where some of the West High boys can be found. They are at the Hi-Y meeting at school. Programs there vary from etiquette on a date, to movies on Wisconsin boxing matches. One of the major events of the social year is the annual Hi-Y Spring Formal. Emphasis is on clean athletics, clean living, clean scholarship and clean speech. Schedules of basketball games were also distributed by the club members. Officers elected were John Keitt, president; George Steinmetz, vice-president; Bob Andersen, secretary; and Dave Umland, treasurer. Their advisor was Tom Jones, Jr.

4-F Club

Fish, fur, feathers, and fowl are the consuming interests of members of the 4-F Club. Many very enjoyable speakers have been guests of the 4-F Club—among them a fur farmer, a game warden, and other nature enthusiasts with stories of hunting and fishing experiences. The club also saw several interesting movies. Presiding over these meetings during the first semester were John Colby, president; Charles Lipke, vice-president; and Donald Kelly, secretary. During the second semester John Follett acted as president, Dick Murphy was vice-president, and Alan Bonsack was secretary. Advisor was Mr. Wayne Hepola.

Camera Club

Seeing stars, flashing light bulbs? Then it must have been room 209 you just passed; for that is where the Camera Club holds its meetings. This club has been organized to stimulate and develop an interest in amateur photography. A variety of programs was presented this year including a talk about making your own photo Christmas cards, the actual photographing of a club member to point out various photographic techniques, and talks on darkroom practices. The main event each year is the sponsoring of the Winter Photo Salon. Everyone in the club is asked to enter. Ribbons are awarded by outside judges. The officers are Leon Petterson, president, Beata Besserdich, vice-president; and Tom Thwaites, secretary-treasurer. The advisor is Mr. Gordon Burgess.

Art Angle

Perhaps the most exciting project of the Art Angle this year was the planning of the art exhibit which was held in room 101 early in March. Almost every member of the club had an entry in the exhibit, thereby providing interesting variety in artistic forms. Under the direction of Mrs. Adele Ortmayer, Art Angle members also enjoyed several guest speakers and took part in art debates. Officers of the club are: Tom Allen, president; Mike Stuhldreher, vice-president; Mary Ellen Oren, secretary; and Robert Doyon, program chairman.

Music Club

Strains of "Ol' Man River" and "The Lord's Prayer" could be heard issuing from room 304 last January, when the Music Club had as its guests Cal Harris and his wife. Phyllis Juster, program chairman, succeeded in planning this and many other equally interesting and enjoyable programs throughout the year, such as musical quizzes, a program by the boys' double quartet, and solos by other talented Westians. All 120 members of Music Club were required to participate in some musical activity. Jane Bandy served as president, and Mary Mickle was secretary. Mr. Ernest Stanke acted as advisor.

Student Senate

Room 215, 5th period on Thursday, is the site of the Student Senate meetings. The Senate, consisting of a representative from each home room plus the class presidents, has student governing power vested in it. This year, in addition to its regular activities, the Senate set up rules for class elections and maintained the sale of candy during the noon hour to raise funds for its activities.

John Keitt was president, with Frank Wendt as vice-president and Rose Marie Prochaska as secretary-treasurer. Mr. Donald Krider acted as faculty advisor.

Student Forum

Minds are busily at work every Monday 5th period in room 215 where the Student Forum is hard at work. This democratically organized club offers an opportunity for any student to express his ideas on current problems. The problems may concern the school, the city, the state or the nation. Movies are shown from which charts are drawn up and discussed. These help the members to evaluate community problems. This club gives the pupils a chance to discuss current problems which are impossible to cover in classes. The advisor is Mr. Donald Krider and the officers are Ed Rubin, president; Jerry Scher, vice-president; and Anne Harris, secretary.

Library Club

With Marjorie Berge as circulation chairman, Marjorie Jackson in charge of attendance, and Mary Lita Jensen in charge of decorations, the Library Club carried on its duties of service to the school. The girls who belong to this club check library slips and attendance, check in and out books and magazines, collect fines, and arrange the books on their shelves. They help to bring the library up to date with the latest books and magazines. Miss Virginia Brooks, head librarian, acted as the club's advisor.

French Club

If you had happened by room 209 during the first period on a club day, you probably would have heard the laughter and music of the French Club in the midst of a French game or song. Miss Mildred Morgan is advisor for the club which conducts its meeting almost completely in French. First semester officers included Stephen Frautschi, president; Duane Moen, vice-president; and Shirley Lewis, secretary. Presiding officers during the second semester were Dave Pfankuchen, president; James Huffer, vice-president; and Nancy Moe, secretary.

Spanish Club

¿Habla Ud. espanol? If you can speak Spanish or have taken at least one year of it, you are eligible for Spanish Club. This year, programs have been varied: Spanish games, movies, and lectures on Spain and Latin American countries. Everyone will remember Tom Towell's movies and talks about his trip to Mexico during Christmas vacation.

Officers of the club were Dick Roberts, president; Tom Towell, vice-president; and Beverly Johnson, secretary-treasurer. Miss Florence Schweitzer acted as advisor.

Ushers' Club

Service and courtesy—those are the words to describe the work of the West High Ushers' Club. Dressed in their blue and maize-colored jackets, the ushers may be seen at any basketball or football game seating adults, clearing the floor, or quietly and efficiently maintaining order. Under the genial guidance of Mr. Frederick Schuler, the Ushers' Club has performed a genuine service to the school. Officers for both semesters include George Crownhart and Dave Horner, presidents; Tom Knitter and John King, vice-presidents; and Harlow Roby and George Crownhart, secretaries.

Boys' English Club

So you like "quiz" programs! This is only one type of program the Boys' English Club carries on. The purpose of this club is to stimulate an interest in English. Jerry Scher, Roger Adkins and Frank Goldberg held office as president, vice-president, and secretary. First semester the advisor was Mrs. Thayer and second semester Mr. Schmidt resumed his old position as advisor.

Science Club

If you have a scientific mind and a recommendation from a science teacher, you may be a member of the Science Club, affiliated with the Wisconsin Junior Academy of Science. Each member gives a half hour talk on his consuming scientific interest. Bill Aspinwall, Dave Horner, and Nancy Farrer are president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, with Mr. Richard Butler as advisor.

German Club

The aspiring German linguists play games, hear talks and put on skits in German Club. Colored slides that had been taken by Anne Becker's father were accompanied by a talk by Mr. Becker who has just returned from Germany. Miss Karow is the advisor with Gerry Edson as president, Anna Pronin, vice-president and program chairman, and Betina Henel, secretary.

Standing: G. Larson. First row: G. Edson, J. Blodgett. Second row: B. Henel, A. Becker, H. Larson. Third row: A. Pronin, T. Pronin, B. Hilsenhoff. Back row: E. Vank, C. Hurd, Miss Karow, E. Cropsey.

Girls' English Club

Girls' English Club met every other Wednesday in Room 222. The club had several joint meetings with Boys' English Club and conducted a very successful clothing drive. The officers were Julie Pfanku, president; Patricia Sather, vice-president; and Virginia Bowman, secretary-treasurer.

Y-Teens

The West Y-Teens meet at the YWCA every Wednesday night with Y-Teens from all over the city. This year they have had speakers from foreign countries and instruction in art crafts, sports and dramatics. They sponsored the state Y-Teen conference, and a clothing drive.

Girls' Club Cabinet

This year the Girls' Club officers were Ann Seibold, president; Lenore Peterson, vice-president; Anne Dohr, treasurer; and Marjorie Jackson, secretary. The other members of the cabinet included Margaret Pew, Lola Stegner, Janet Easum, Ann Doan, and Donna Duehr. In addition to its regular getting-acquainted party and mother-daughter tea, the club conducted a drive for soap for needy Europeans.

Stage Crew

"Places, everybody! Curtain!" shouts Glenn Weavers, stage manager, and another dramatic production begins. Backstage, the Stage Crew scurries about arranging props, straightening costumes, giving last touches to make-up, and hoping and praying that nothing will go wrong. All this is but a climax to a month's hard work for the Stage Crew. Their work, however, is not limited to plays. The Stage Crew serves in some way at almost every auditorium program, whether it is a talent show, a guest speaker, or a pep meeting. Members must have a "C" average, and be recommended by their home room teachers. Mrs. Ruth McCarty acted as advisor for the club which chose Margie Rupp as secretary, and Sue Wegener and Bob Carpenter as program chairmen. On their Wednesday meetings, members of the Stage Crew enjoyed such speakers as Michael Hinn of WKOW, and Mrs. Richard Church of the theater guild, as well as several readings and short plays.

G.A.A.

The purpose of the G.A.A., Girls' Athletic Association, is to acquaint its members with the rules and regulations of the various seasonal sports. This year it was achieved by means of movies, talks by guest speakers, and actual participation in the sports. One of the most popular activities was a ping pong tournament which was held early in the year. Acting as president of G.A.A. was Mary Rusy. Kathleen Mackesey and Nancy Rogers served as vice-president and secretary, respectively, and Virginia Schulz was treasurer. Miss Alice Holmes acted as advisor for the club.

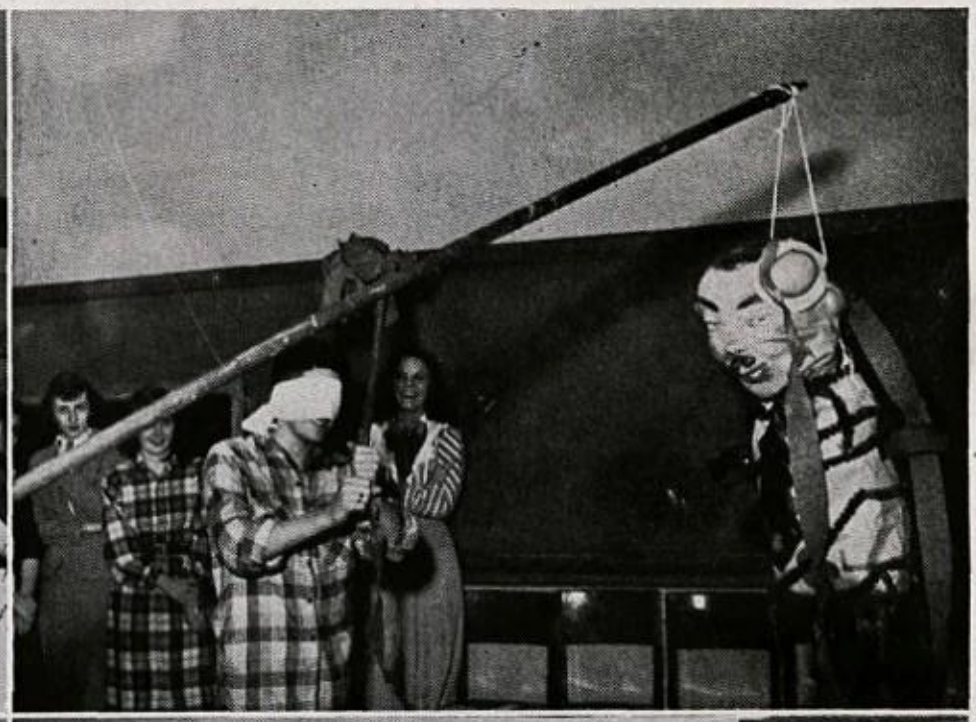
Pep Club

Under the guidance of Jerry Remy as president; Joe Miller, vice-president; Rose Marie Prochaska, secretary-treasurer; and Miss Betty Perego, faculty advisor, this new club had the job of promoting school spirit. With the cheerleaders as the nucleus, the club was formed at the beginning of the school year and worked out new cheers and auditorium pep programs. These programs consisted of speakers, cheering, and an occasional skit. Coach Harris enlivened many of our pep auds with his clever stories, often at Mr. Harnack's expense.



A Cappella Choir

"Hurry up, you'll be late for practice," was the way most choir members greeted each other. Special rehearsals were required to prepare for programs such as the Christmas Pageant, the Christmas Program, the Winter and Spring Concerts, and the Pop Concert.

Under the direction of Miss Marion Huxtable, the choir has again proved itself worthy of praise. Assisting Miss Huxtable were Burr McWilliams, president; Dave Matson, vice-president; Marjorie Jackson, secretary; Beverly Johnson, treasurer; and librarians Mary Ellen Oren, Marilyn Oliver, Louisa Maloney, and Lois Fauerbach.

Girls' Triple Trio

The Girls' Triple Trio made its first appearance before the pupils and teachers of West in the Armistice Day program. The girls gave special programs for adult groups, but we remember them for their work in the Christmas Program, the Pop Concert, and the Winter and Spring Concerts.

During the first semester the members of Triple Trio were Ann Miller, Beverly Johnson, Virginia Bowman, alto; Sue Lentz, Pat Schmidt, Lou Anne Jones, second soprano; Beverly Niehus, Mary Ellen Oren, Jane Bandy, first soprano. Second semester, Jane Bandy, Beverly Johnson and Mary Ellen Oren were replaced by Mary Rusy, Joanne Guenther, and Mary Homann. Alicemay Gerretson acted as accompanist.

Boys' Double Quartet

The Double Quartet has had a very interesting year. Besides appearances in several aud programs, they frequently have been asked to sing for activities outside of the school.

Their repertoire consists of a wide variety of songs including barber shop harmony and selections from musical comedies, as well as standard songs for male choruses.

Members are Al Gay, Dave Moran, 1st tenor; Dave Henry, George Crownhart, 2nd tenor; Lowell Hall, Dick Wendt, baritone; Burr McWilliams, George Steinmetz, bass. These boys have done a good job this year and are to be heartily congratulated.

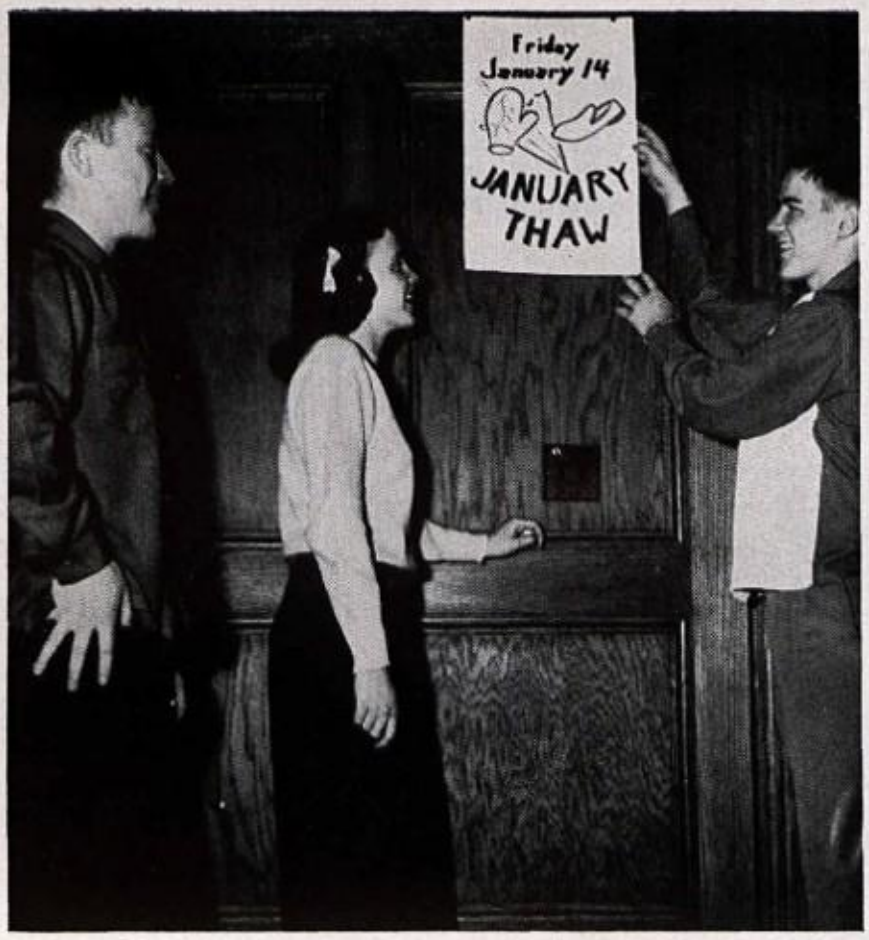
Band

The Band, under the leadership of Mr. Ernest Stanke, had its usual heavy schedule playing for all occasions from pep meetings to "network broadcasts." They provided plenty of spirit for all the home football games and some basketball games and even made the trip to Janesville to support the team there. In addition to the Winter and Spring Concerts, they gave an unusual Pop Concert in the form of a "mutual network broadcast." Beverly Johnson and Janet Easum are to be congratulated for their fine jobs in performing piano solos during the two main concerts. The Band officers, with Wally Stebbins as Lieutenant, took care of the tasks of setting up chairs, caring for equipment and all office work.

Orchestra

Fifty-two senior high students make up the West High Concert Orchestra which is under the direction of Mr. Ernest Stanke.

This organization has added much to the enjoyment of West High pupils during the past year. Besides giving their annual Pop Concert for the school, they appeared in the Winter and Spring Concerts and furnished music for the fall dramatic production, Our Hearts Were Young and Gay. Outstanding solo work has been done this year by Eva Perlman and Martha Curti.



Junior Class Officers

Besides the Junior Class meetings in the aud, these people were responsible for the Junior Dance, "January Thaw," and for Grad Dance.

Trying to decide on a play for speech are Bob Andersen, Pat Supernau, Dick Herkert, and Bill Aspinwall.

After a closely contested election, Jack Barry, Doug Holt, and Sandra Champion were chosen as president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of the Sophomore Class. They have been guided by Mr. Henry Koehler, Sophomore advisor. The Sophomore Class shows promise of upholding the high standards set by previous classes.

Office Workers

"Say, can I get another absence card?" "May I use the telephone?" "Did you find a white scarf with a blue fringe?"

These and many other questions were asked of the girls working in the office this year. Their main duties were to watch the switchboard and pick up the absence reports after home room and 7th period, but many other jobs were given to them.

The switchboard was enough to keep them busy, but they also took telephone messages, delivered them, sorted mail, ran the ditto machine, and helped the people who came to the office desk wanting information or help of some kind.

To these girls we extend our praise for their wonderful work.

Social Committee

The Social Committee members have had their usual busy season and, with the aid of their advisor, Mr. James Schaefer, were responsible for some very successful dances. In the fall they sponsored the informal Homecoming Dance, which was held following the Beloit football game. One of the big events of the spring social season was the formal May Dance also sponsored by the committee and held this year on May 14.

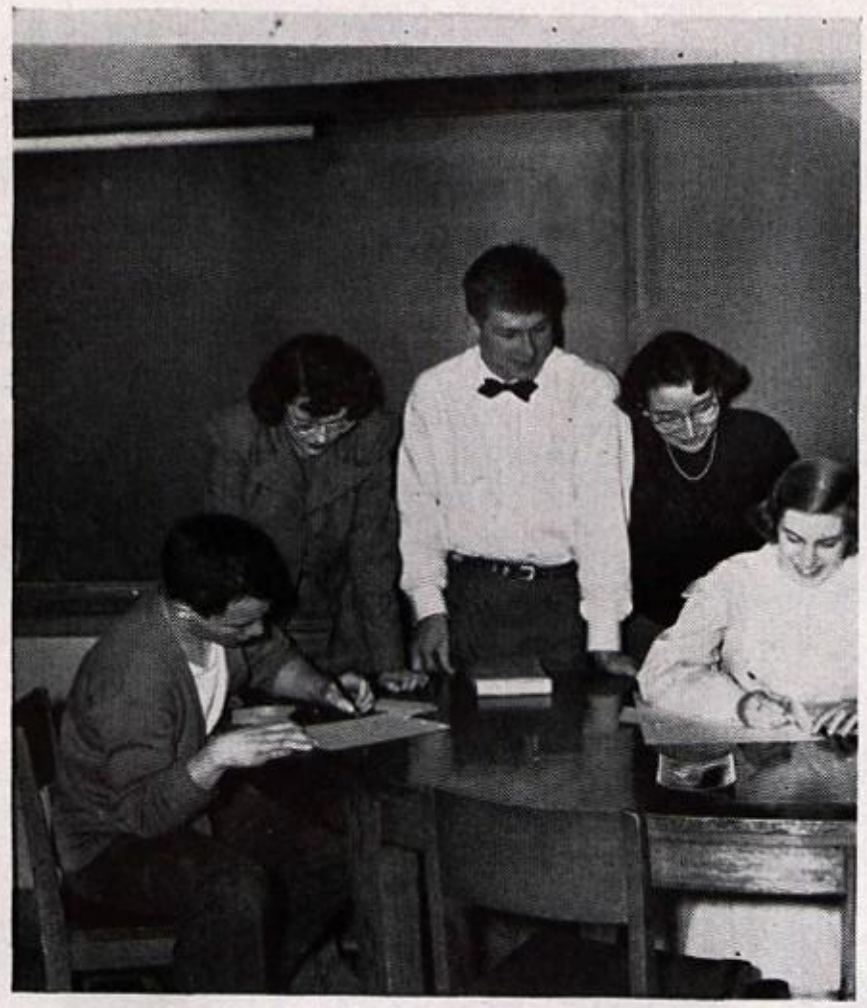
The Social Committee also supervised such affairs as the Grad Dance, the Yearbook Dance, and the W Club Dance, which are sponsored by various school groups.

Members of the committee were Frank Wendt, chairman; Paul Beers, Dave Moran, John Schlom, Lucia Koltes, Eddie Rubin, Beverly Johnson, Elinor Westbury, Dick Roberts, and Jerry Remy.

Class Night Committee

"The Forty-Niners Showboat" was the fitting theme chosen by the Class Night Committee, headed by co-chairmen, Jim Critton, and Glenn Weavers. Their committee members were Helen Worsencroft, Dave Severson, Julie Pfanku, Ann Seibold, Wally Stebbins, Burk Brown, Bill Boaman, Jane Bandy, and Betty Christoffersen. Each member was responsible for one act among which were skits, bands, and quartets, all acts centering around the "49ers" theme. Tryouts in early spring gave each aspiring performer an opportunity to show his ability. Contrary to former years, only West High students participated in the performance. In addition admission was charged for all those except seniors who attended the show.

High Times



Laying out pages for High Times are Dick Roberts, Barbara Tews, Dave Umland, Mary Ann Hodel, and Kaye McGann.

Taking a trip to Hillsboro, and, by the way, missing a day of school, was the main social event of the year for the High-Times members. A tea, a Christmas party, and a press box lunch were among the other events that relieved the hard work of the High-Times staff.

During the year a twelve-page Christmas issue and fourteen regular issues were published under the direction of Barbara Duff, Kaye McGann, and Mr. Robert Harnack, advisor.

Many changes were made in an effort to make the High-Times the best yet, and we think the staff of '49 did a swell job.

Examining the Senior pictures for the Yearbook are Mr. Schmidt, Janet Sitar, John Keitt, Margie Rupp, and Joanne Guenther.

The yearbook staff this year worked in the domestic atmosphere of sewing machines and ironing boards because their yearbook study was set up in the sewing room. However, this did not seem to affect the quantity and quality of their work.

A number of new ideas were worked out by the staff in order to make our annual "bigger and better." Heading the list is the new faculty section.

This year's yearbook advisors were Mr. Eugene Schmidt and Miss Florence Schweizer, who took over this position in Mr. Schmidt's absence. This year's staff, headed by Ed Rubin, did a fine job in helping to make our yearbook the best ever.

On the night of December 3 West Senior High presented its fall dramatic production. The audience that Friday night was introduced to Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough as the main characters in Our Hearts Were Young and Gay.

The story is centered on Cornelia's and Emily's trip to Paris and the adventures and romance they had. Of course, when two teen-age girls get together, just about anything can happen, so you can imagine how delighted the audience was with this hilarious comedy written by Miss Skinner.

The second dramatic presentation this year was held on April 1. Appropriately, this was named April Foolery. It included three one-act plays, Into The Nowhere, a pantomime in black and white; The Pot Boiler, a take-off on play producing and acting; A Wedding, a comedy concerning a last-minute lovers' quarrel; and a comical curtain raiser with Jim Critton and Burr McWilliams called Oft in the Stilly Night.

The casts of these plays and the stage crew together with their director, Mrs. Ruth McCarty, deserve a great deal of praise for the fine entertainment which they have given us.

13-7

The team opened the season with a bang as they took a 13-7 victory from a rugged La Crosse Central outfit. The Regents capitalized on an intercepted pass for their first tally. Dick Christensen pulled the La Crosse pass out of the air and raced 55 yards to the goal line. The gridders struck again as Pete Ciulla passed to Beyler for a touchdown on a play that covered 62 yards. After these two counters the boys settled down to protect their lead and finished the contest to gain a well deserved win. This victory was a good preview of what was to come as the Regents fought their way through another season under the able guidance of Coach Willis Jones and Assitsant Coach Robert Harris.

27-6

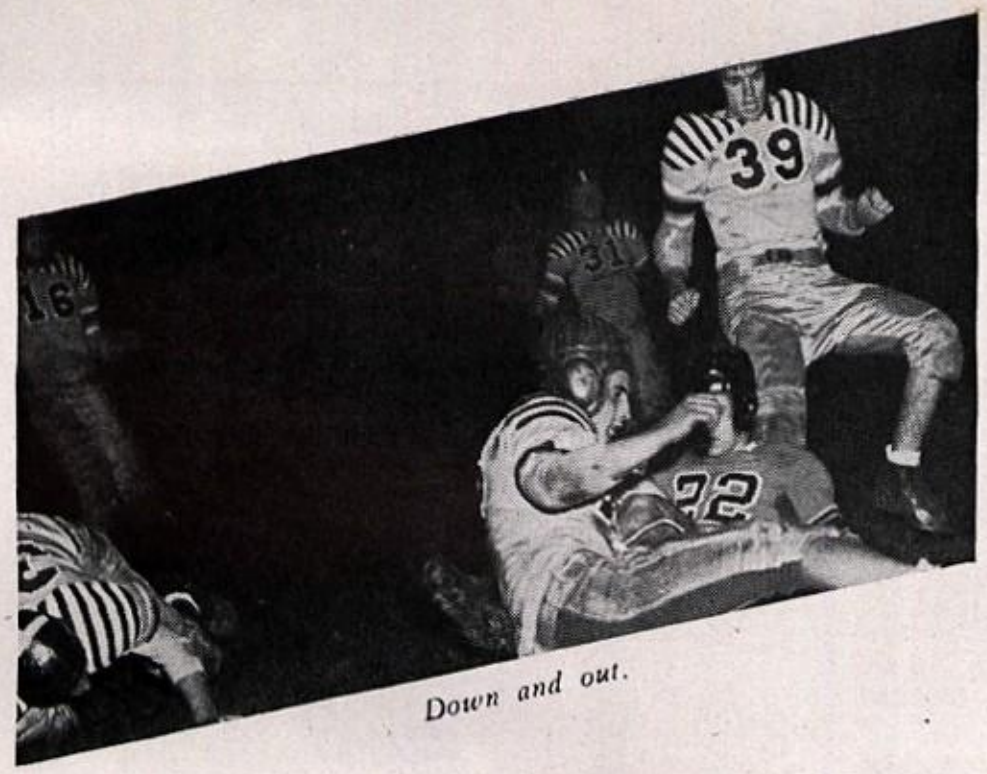
The Regents opened conference play with a decisive 27-6 win over Racine Horlick. Although West's play was far from impressive, it proved adequate to down the "Malted Milk" eleven from Horlick. "Buzz" Rebenstorff tallied two of the Regents' four markers on runs of twelve and fourteen yards. He also had a seventy-two yard scamper nullified because of a penalty. The team made the best of several Horlick fumbles which the boys turned into touchdowns. Guard Al Trotalli, tackle George Steinmetz, and center Dave Johnson each had one recovery. The Regents outgained the Racine squad both in the air and on the ground. Penalties called back two Horlick touchdowns.

33-7

The Westians cleared their first obstacle in the quest of the city championship by romping over Madison Central, 33-7. This victory also raised West's place in the conference standings. The red-hot Regents pushed over only one touchdown in the first half, but added four more in the second. Although the pass defense was a little on the ragged side, Central was held to little yardage on the ground. West took advantage of their strong line, as up-the-middle plays clicked regularly. The offensive line play of Bob and Al Trotalli was impressive. Bob Nichols and Pete Ciulla teamed with Jim Critton to add plenty of punch in the backfield.

28-6

The squad, riding on a wave of three straight victories, rolled to its fourth by beating Racine Park, 28-6, at Racine. This win catapulted West into an undisputed first place position in the Big Eight. The roarin' Regents all but swept the fighting Park team off the field. The boys controlled the game all the way and the statistics showed 253 yards gained by West to but 70 for the Shore City eleven. The rugged Regent forward wall really proved itself in holding Park down and it opened the holes to let our backs through for considerable yardage. Ciulla paced the scoring with two touchdowns. Bob Curtin converted all four times.



Down and out.

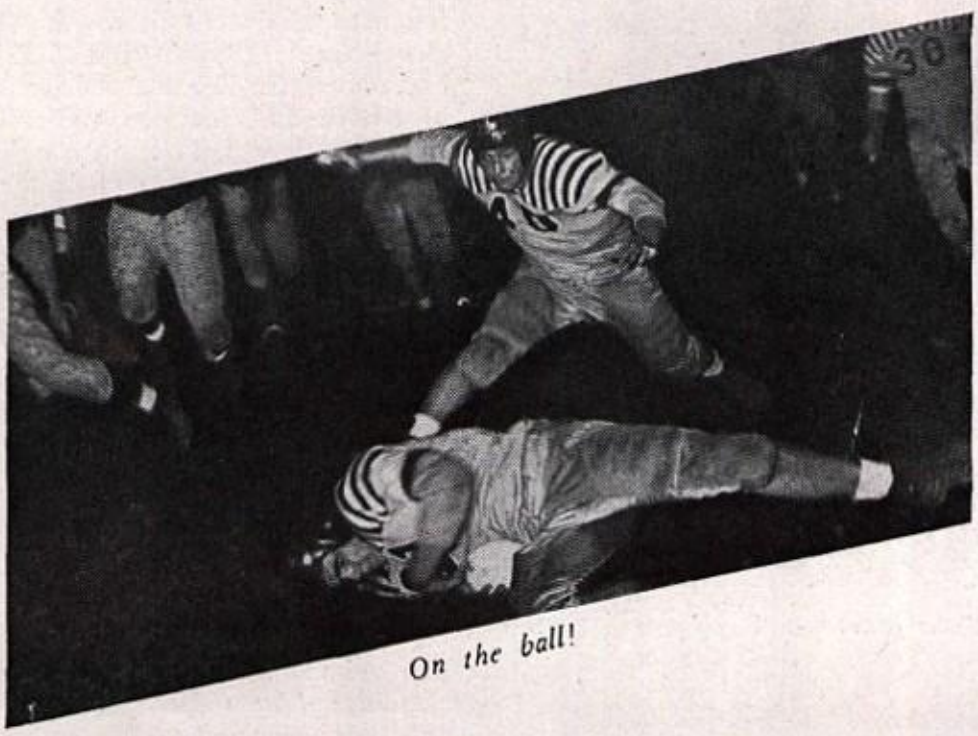
The Regents continued to roll up victories as they whipped East in one of those savage battles which always marks a city series tilt. When the gun sounded, the West-siders had a neat 7-0 edge and a city series championship. Alertness paid off for the boys as they recovered a fumble and converted it into the only score of the ball game. The lines were the determining factor in this contest. The work of Al Trotalli, the Regents' veteran guard, was, as usual, outstanding. The other boys in the line—Beyler, Johnson, Bob Trotalli, Steinmetz, and Schulz—continued their fine showings. Pete Ciulla scored the touchdown and Bob Curtin converted.



On the ball!

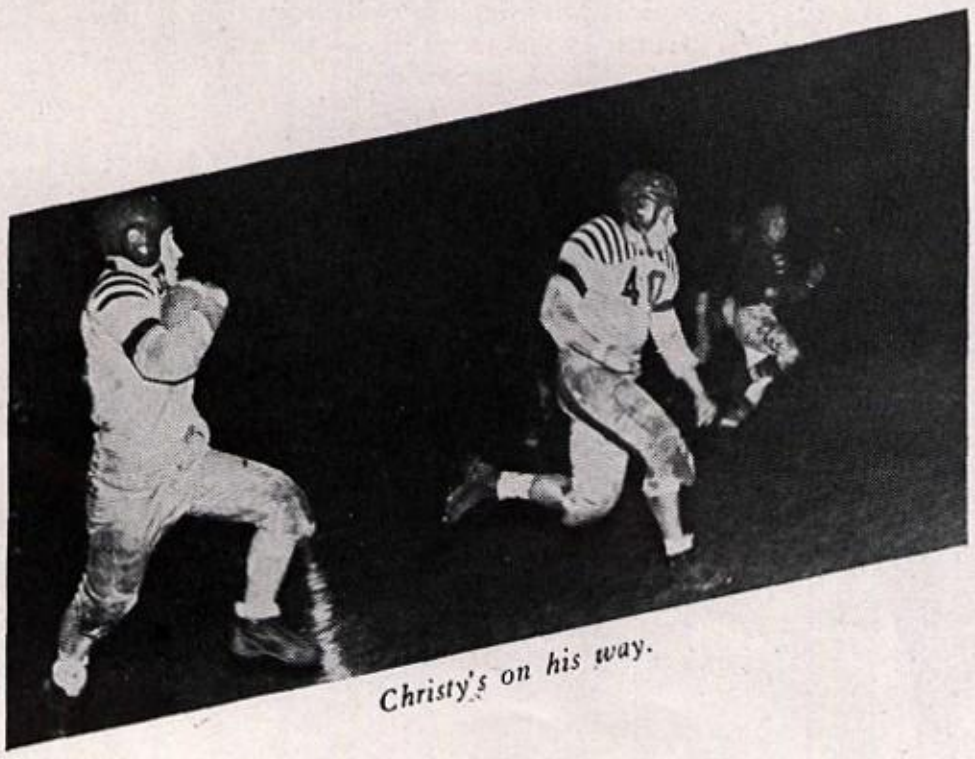
The "Roaring Regents" traveled to Janesville and made it six in a row with a convincing 19-6 victory over an inspired Bluebird squad. The hard charging of the line, plus the shifty and timely running of the backs, overcame an early six point Janesville lead and put the game away for Coach Jones' victorious gridders. It was again the beautiful work of Pete Ciulla and soph halfback Jack Barry that paced West to victory. Jim Critton scored two touchdowns as the boys drove from their own one-yard line on both occasions. Art Schulz turned in a standout game at right end, and the line-backing of Hal Mathison was fine. This win set the stage for the all-important Beloit tilt.

7-13

The Regents suffered their only setback of the season when they dropped a 13-7 decision to a strong state-line eleven on a muddy field. The Westians overcame an early 6-0 deficit but they could not hold down Beloit. The game was hard-fought all the way, and both teams displayed solid football. Pete Ciulla, along with Jim Critton, led the West team in the ground-gaining department. The entire line, led by all-city and all-conference "Ozzie" Schulz and "Puck" Beyler, also performed well. The only mar on Beloit's record was a scoreless tie earlier in the season. This game put the State-Liners one-half game ahead of the Maize-and-Blue.



Christy's on his way.

52-0

The Regents snapped out of the Beloit heartbreaker and closed the season in a blaze of glory over Kenosha. When the lights went out, the squad was on the long end of a 52-0 score. It was hardly a struggle as the team powered over eight touchdowns. Jack Barry led the parade with two tallies and was assisted in the scoring with Ciulla, Curtin, Schulz, Rebenstorff, Nichols, and Frank Wendt each getting one. Another bright spot in the Regent victory was the competent showing of the reserves, which may mean another good year in 1949 for Coach Jones and the West High gridders. The team finished in the runner-up spot in the Big Eight. Nice going, boys!

4-Lakes Football

There is a policy at West High to give all boys who come out for football a chance to compete in interscholastic athletics. The members of the senior, junior, and sophomore football teams played Saturday mornings with the same spirit displayed by the varsity in night games. The juniors finished in a tie for first place in the Mendota League. The seniors and the sophomores also played good ball and finished third and second in their respective leagues.

*Non-conference games

Everyone knew the basketball situation at West wasn't a bright one, with only two lettermen returning, but after considerable shuffling in the first two games, Coach Bob Harris hit upon a combination that seemed to click. The old spirit and confidence seemed to be there as the team began winning.

The records show most of what happened. Racine Horlick, the power of the conference, was too powerful in both games. It was the second West-Racine Park battle that was the heartbreaker. Park's close victory shattered the title hopes the boys had cherished all through their first seven victories and two defeats. With little but a mathematical chance left for West, Horlick beat West for the second time, clinching the title for themselves. Dropping the last few games, West wound up in a tie for fourth place with Janesville.

There is a brighter side to the story. Fast, smooth ballplaying dominated the early and the mid-season, as this West team, rated to be last in the Big Eight, was out to show that no West High basketball team was going to be satisfied at the bottom of the pile. The boys did that. The team won the city championship, beating East once, and Central twice. They won seven games and lost seven. Credit goes to Coach Bob Harris and his assistants for shaping this team into a good ball club.

Jack Vincent, one of the most accurate scorers and dependable players West High has seen, netted 234 points to win the conference scoring championship and break Don Page's record of 225 points. Dale Bossenberry's smooth ball-handling and rebounding won him a place on the all-city and all-Big Eight teams along with Vincent. Jim Critton deserves credit for his steady dependable playing all season, and John Keitt for solid playing and fine rebounding. Keith Johnson pulled down more of those much needed rebounds at center. Our thanks also to Pete Ciulla, Duane Bredesen, and all the rest of the team, a team that couldn't have tried much harder for a championship.

Sophomores

The prospects appeared bright for the Regent Sophs as the bounce-ball season approached, and Coach Tom Jones, Jr. looked forward to a fine year. Then several key boys were moved up to the varsity and that hurt the quintet. They finished the year after a slow start with a record of 5 wins and 10 losses. The steady playing of guards Jim Namio and Tom Nissalke, and forward Owen Roberts sparked the team to several fine showings. These boys will form the nucleus of next year's varsity squad.

Four Lakes

The Four Lakes program was more extensive than ever this year with 12 teams from West competing. The league is divided into various smaller groups which vary in caliber of competition. The most outstanding teams from West this year were the "X's" and the Screwballs, which won championships in their respective divisions. The Regionaires and the Royals turned out to be the best senior representatives from West in their leagues.

Track

The West track squad showed promise and gave notice of their strength in the Wisconsin Rapids Relays, the opening meet. Headed by Art Schulz, 1948 state shot put champ, "Buzz" Rebenstorff, and John Koellen, the Westians outclassed a field of seven to win with 41 points. The boys also came through in the West Relays by nosing out Madison East in a fight to the finish. Queen Nancy Johnson and her escorts, Mary Ellen Oren and Margaret Pew, reigned over the meet. Both the Rapids and West Relays were won in the final event, where the mile relay quartet pulled out a win. The West "B's" came in fourth in the class B events. The Regents lost heavily from last year's state championship team through graduation, and Coach Jones, along with assistants Tom Jones, Jr., and Bruce Fossum, deserve a great deal of credit for rounding out as powerful a squad as they have. West is undefeated since the state meet of 1947 and chances are that they can continue this string of continuous victories this year.

Wrestling

The wrestling team opened its second year in competitive action determined to improve on the record of the year before. Jim Lawrence, the new coach, had several lettermen back to form the nucleus of the squad. However, the grapplers took only one of their dual matches and sent two boys, Dave Hoeveler and Jack Hammes, on to win state consolation matches. The varsity members of the team were, Bob Bakken, 105 lbs.; Joe Miller, 115 lbs.; Jack Hammes, 125 lbs.; Dave Hoeveler and Dick Monson, 135 lbs., and Dave Umland and Dick Vaughan at 145 lbs. Dick Roberts fought in the 155 lb. division, and George Steinmetz competed in the 165 division. The light-heavyweights were Ronald Beyler and John Colby. Hal Mathison and John Gill wrestled as heavyweights.

Cross-Country

The West Harriers had another good season. The boys had the reputation of defending state champs to live up to. Coach Evans' boys won two out of four dual meets. The Westians also came out victorious in their one triangular contest. In the Big Eight meet, the team finished second to the state champion Racine Park squad. This race was highlighted by the efforts of John Koellen, who outran a field of first-class competitors to cross the finish line first and set a new course record. West finished twelfth in the state meet. The lettermen were Koellen, Wally Stebbins, Jim Ward, Dick Vaughan, Mike Stuhldreher, Ron Remy, Ara Sergenian, and Jack Hammes.

Archery

The Regent bowmen, coached by Mr. Paul Olsen, were undefeated again in 1948-49, lengthening their win streak to 24 straight dual meet triumphs. In addition, Bill Wolberg, Irving Johnson, Alan Bonsack, Tom Erickson, Bob Walters, Chuck Stumpf, Gene Roark, Ronald Babcock, and Bud Hahn took 8 of the first 10 places in the annual West Invitational Tournament, beating out Edgerton, Montello, and Central for the team title. Lopsided victories were scored twice over each of their rivals in two-team competition. The team also defended their National Olympic and Chicago Round championships, and entered several boys in the state tournament at Kimberly. Bill Wolberg, who again paced the archers in all competition, was defeated by one point, but took second place in the Junior Flight Division. Bill accumulated several very high scores during the season, some of them record-breakers, and a very close to perfect total of 810.

Hockey

The puckmen again came through in fine fashion to round out an undefeated season. The team was hit hard by graduation, but new men filled in the empty slots to make the squad a powerful one. Led by Roland "Spike" Annen and Ted Danielson, the boys racked up victory after victory to give the team a claim to the mythical state championship. Other standouts were Fred Volkmann, Bill Walker, and Guerdon Coombs. The team was again under the able direction of Willis Jones and John Riley. The Regents held their games and practices at the Vilas Park rink which is operated by the city.

Volleyball

The Regent volleyball squad opened the season in defense of the state crown which the team won a year ago. Losses by graduation and ineligibility cut down the team's chances and didn't leave too much of a nucleus for the squad. Bob Harris' boys managed to win only one battle, that one with Central, but lost by close margins in several other matches. The main spikers were Bob Lea, Tom Nissalke, Jerry Padgham, John Keitt, and Owen Roberts. Setting up for these boys were Dale Bossenberry, Bob Bakken, Dave Johnson, and Johnny Lovell. In the state meet the squad won its opener, but lost out in the championship bracket.

Golf

The Regent golf squad looks forward to the most successful campaign in its history. Headed by lettermen Bob Bruce, Doug Koepcke, and Bill "Peanuts" Haak, the boys should prove themselves rough in any match. The missing link in this impressive golfing combo is a consistent fourth man. The leading competitors for this role are Ronnie Bergstrom, Dale Bossenberry, Bob Tucker, and Jim Namio. The linksmen have another advantage in that they are host to the state golf meet, which will be played at Nakoma. If things turn out right for Coach Clifford Hawley's boys, the state golf crown might go to the West golf team. Here's wishing you luck, boys!

Rifle Club

The Rifle Club, under the direction of Miss Esther Gerling and Jerry Teasdale, was organized this year. Members were picked and each one had to pass certain safety and gunnery tests. The club met every Wednesday night at the University rifle range. The riflemen competed in several dual matches, and placed fourth in the state meet at Milwaukee. The club also was scheduled to compete in a second state meet held in the spring. The officers were: John Schlom, pres.; Tom Towell, vice-pres.; and George Steinmetz, secretary-treasurer. The club was not listed as a competitive team because of no regular practice or schedule. The Pioneer Club and the Rifle Team are outgrowths of the club.

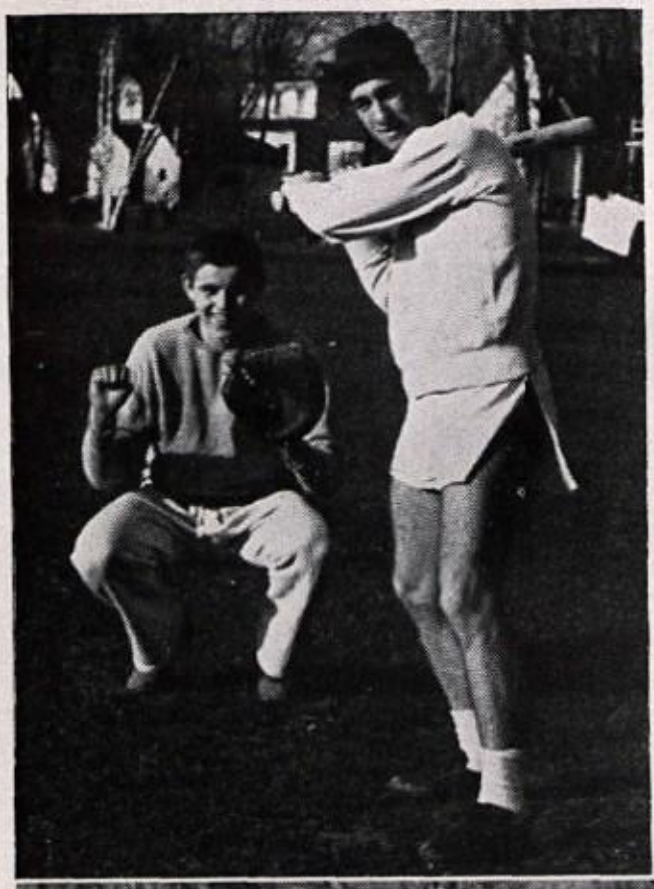
First row: T. Raymond, J. Namio, B. Haak. Second row: B. Tucker, R. Adkins, D. Bossenberry, B. Bruce, D. Koepcke.

Tennis

The tennis team was another of the Regent squads to win a state championship last year. Although graduation took several key men from last year's potent aggregation, there was still a nucleus for a strong squad this year. Jack Vincent, letterman and runner-up in the state individual championship, led the prospects. On hand to help was Dick Stiehm, another regular last year. The other two positions were wide open. Vincent continued his rivalry with Dan Baumle, Whitefish Bay ace, this spring, and this pair produced some great tennis. After a series of dual matches, the Regent netters entered the Big Eight and state tourneys.

First row: F. Quartuccio, T. Nissalke, G. Casper, V. Comstock, D. Holt, J. Mansfield, D. Christensen, R. Annen. Second row: D. Hembre, J. Neu, B. Trotalli, D. Moran, N. Ward, J. Schlom, P. Coffman, Coach Paugh.

Baseball



The 1949 edition of the baseball team faced the rigorous task of molding itself into a strong aggregation with only two regulars back. Norm Ward, varsity third baseman, and Jim Critton, veteran outfielder, were the lone survivors of graduation. Helping them out are John Schlom, a returning letterman and reserve outfielder last year, and Jack Neu, a talented pitcher. Coach Russ Paugh declared all other positions wide open as the season started. The team lost their opener to the University JayVee squad by a score of 3 to 1. After that the team met several other squads, including East and Central, the city rivals. Then the Westians entered the state meet. The squad practiced at Wingra Park and played their games at Franklin, Breese Stevens and Wingra Parks.

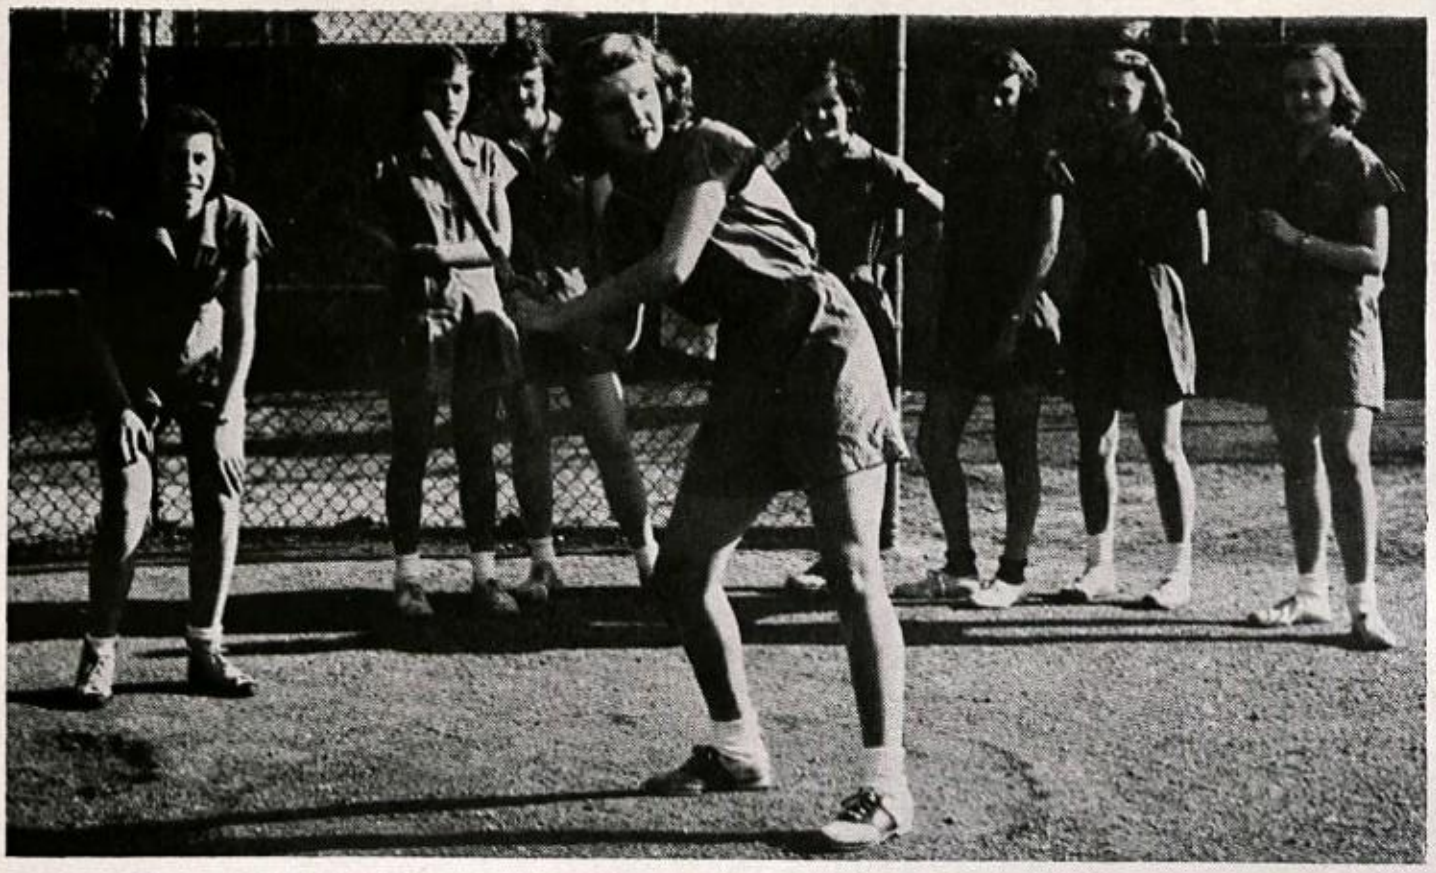
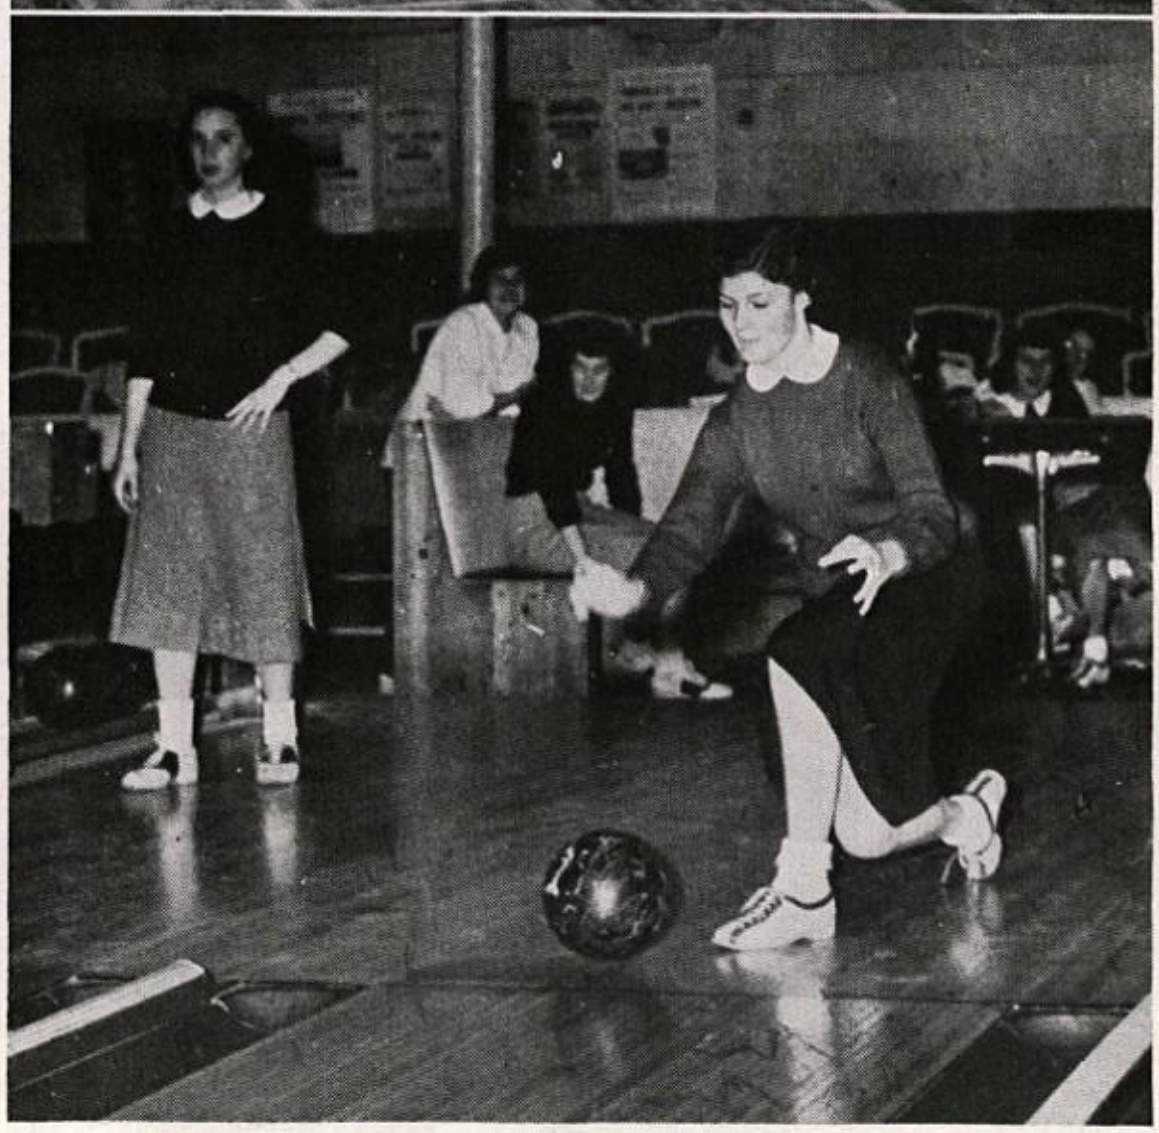
Girls Sports





Girls' sports opened in the fall with field hockey and bowling. Girls interested in field hockey participated after school but no tournament was scheduled. Bowling seemed to be the most popular sport of the year. The girls bowled every Tuesday for six weeks at the Lark under the supervision of Miss Alice Holmes. Mr. Obie Quam of the Lark also helped many of the girls with their games.

The high spot of the year was the volleyball tournament at East High School. Competition was keen between East, West, and Central, the three participating schools. The West Sophomore team tied for first place while the West Junior team broke even in its games. In the inter-school tournament Donna Tehan's team was victorious. Teams led by Joyce McNearny and Sally Norg tied for second; by Pat Jefferson and Diane Pallett tied for fourth; and there was a three-way tie for sixth place between Louanne Roberts', JoAnne Wilson's, and Suzanne Hilgers' teams.

The next sport was basketball which ended late in the spring. The captains were: Roberta Lee, Eileen Riley, Mimi Mackin, Becky Russell, Mary Culver, Joan Enders, and Sheila Ryan.

The spring sports were tennis and baseball.

In Memoriam

They are not lost but sent before—

Thomas Gallagher was born in Madison on October 18, 1930. He died December 7, 1948. Tom entered West in 1941 after graduating from St. Raphael's. At West he was a member of 4-F Club. Well liked by his teachers and fellow-students, Tom was quiet, courteous, and cooperative. His friendly manner and ability to get along with others will always be remembered by all who knew him.
